HOW TO BECOME PART OF UD HISTORY

- Make a Plan with your Academic Advisor
- Bookmark udel.edu/academic/global/
- Get to know CGPS Deadlines
- Decide on type of program:
  - Short-term Faculty Led in winter or summer session
  - Fall or Spring Semester
  - Attend Interest Meetings to learn more

Benefits of a Short-Term Program

- UD faculty-taught
- Shorter time commitment: 3 to 7 weeks
- Travel & study as a group
- Take advantage of UD's unique Winter Session

Benefits of a Semester Program

- Cost efficiency
- Fuller investment in local community
- Language proficiency
- Network-building
- Diverse course offerings taught by international faculty

Application Process

- Get a passport
- Apply online
- Have Professor submit online
Recommendation on your behalf
- Prepare for your interview

How Can I Afford This?

Tuition + Program Fee + Airfare

Have current FAFSA on file with Student Financial Services

Speak with a Student Financial Services Advisor about financial aid

CGPS automatically considers every UD study abroad applicant for a need-based scholarship of 50-75% of the program fee.

Pell Grant recipients are eligible for federally funded Gilman Scholarships
