Liberty golfers close out with big win over Port

LIBERTY

For Liberty's golf team it was a successful yet frustrating season.

Liberty closed out its schedule with a big 11 $1/2$ -1 $1/2$ victory over Duso Village League foe Port Jervis at Grossinger's Hotel course Wednesday for a record of 14-2. But the two losses were to Ellenville, Duso Village and Section Nine champions. It was a most futile title chase.

Mark Etes, the only senior on the team, led the way against Port Jervis, carding a two-over par 37. Though he was the medalist, Etes won only two and one half of three points.

His round included a pair of birdies, one in particular when he rammed home a 15-foot putt on the par three, 165-yard fifth, his second birdie in a row. Etes got one on No. 4, a par-five, 468-yard hole. The rest of his round included four bogies and three pars.

Sheldon Pollack, Liberty's No. 2 golfer, carded a 40, second best round of the match, to take three points from Rich Saul. Pollack had a birdie on the 322-yard ninth hole.
