POSC 380/ LEST 380; Section 13:

On Tuesday, March 26, we will finish our discussion of intentional torts. Please be sure to read Chapter 5 (pp. 94–99); and in the online Casebook: James v. Meow Media; Wal-Mart v. Cockrell; Perna v. Pirozzi; Roach v. Stern.

Case presentations scheduled for Tuesday are as follows:

Roach v. Stern	Jimmy Linderman
----------------	-----------------

We will move on to discuss unintentional torts. Please read the rest of Chapter 5 (pp. 101–111) as well as three cases in the Online Casebook: Fischer v. Pepsi; Schick v. Ferolito; and Lilya v. Greater Gulf State Fair. The case presentations will be as follows:

Fisher v. Pepsi	Natalie Paramo
Schick v. Ferolito	Ethan Merdinger
Lilya v. Greater Gulf State Fair	Ivy Nargiz

On Thursday, March 28, we will finish discussing unintentional torts and then move on to discuss product liability torts. Please read pages 115–126 in Chapter 6 of the Cheeseman text as well as three cases in the Online Casebook: Shoshone Coca-Cola v. Dolinski; Nowak v. Faberge; Elstroth v. Johnson & Johnson. Not sure we will get this far (I will know after class on Tuesday), but the case presentations scheduled for Thursday are as follows:

Shoshone Coca-Cola v. Dolinski	need volunteer
Nowak v. Faberge	Zachary Kagy
Elstroth v. J & J	need volunteer

If we do not get this far, we will carry this assignment over to April 9, the first class after Spring Break.

Remember: No class on April 2 or 4. Enjoy Spring break.

Reminder: If you still have not signed up for a case presentation, check out the signup sheet (here) and let me know your choice. Plenty of cases left. You can now sign up for a second case presentation for extra credit. Email me with your choice – especially for the two cases above.
