A diagram of a heap data structure of 7 elements with the unique paths that are used in the proof of Theorem 2.12 of Goodrich and Tamassia. The links in the path from each internal node to an external node are labelled with the level number of the internal node. The original links of the binary tree are not shown.