

To Whom It May Concern:

The Registrar's Office at the University of Delaware does not complete forms or generate customized letters verifying information otherwise available on an official academic transcript, enrollment or degree verification, or student account/billing statement. Please see below for a list of common requests and how to obtain documentation for each. You may print this letter as proof of the university policy.

Order an official transcript from the National Student Clearinghouse at <https://udel.edu/udsis> (current students) www.getmytranscript.com (former students) for:

- Degree verification
- Academic/enrollment information
- Letter of "good standing" or academic eligibility to return to the university – the official transcript documents the grade point average (GPA) and any probationary/academic dismissal status. Good Standing = 2.0 or higher GPA.
- Transient Student Forms (permission to take coursework at another college/university) – The official transcript is used to verify "good standing" and eligibility to return to UD; the institution you intend to study at should determine your eligibility to enroll. The University of Delaware does not require students to ask for permission to be transient students.
- Common Application – The academic information requested will be listed on an official transcript.
