Web Pages: Creating and Maintaining
Tom Keane - tomkeane@udel.edu
Mayis Seapan – seapanmj@gmail.com
BASIC HTML tags

Starting	Ending
<html>	</html>	Always at the very beginning and at the end of your web page
<head>	</head>	Placed after the <html> tag (General info about page)
<title>	</title>	Placed between the head tags
<body>	</body>	Placed after the </head> tag and before the final </html> tag. Contains the information that appears on your web page
<h#>	</h#>	Heading Tags - Displays text in Bold with various font sizes in a new paragraph (" # = 1 thru 6 [1 is largest] ")
		Paragraph tags Options: , ,
 		Inserts a line break
		Bold
		Underline
		Italic
<strike>	</strike>	Strikeout text
_		Subscript text
[	]	Superscript text
		 (# = 1 thru 7 [7 is largest])

Color Names - aqua, black, blue, fuchsia, gray, green, lime, maroon, navy, olive, purple, red, silver, teal, white, and yellow (Supported by the W3C HTML 4.0 standard)

Name Codes	  - non-breaking space	© - Copyright
	&reg; - Reg. TM	&gt; - Greater than >
	&lt; - Less Than <	&deg; - degree °
	&plusmn; - Plusminus	&frac14; - ¼
	&frac12; - ½ &frac34; - ¾	&cent; - cent